POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

June 19th 1916.

Sir,

The Chinese Telegraph Administration has received instructions from Peking to dispatch free of charge telegrams sent to President Li by the southern leaders concerning political affairs.

Chiangchun Feng Kou Chang 馮國璋 has sent a man to Shanghai to advise Li Ping Su 李平書 to proceed to Nanking.

A detective named Van Sau Foo 范少甫 who is employed by Generals Chang Hsun and Nyi Sz Tsung boarded and searched a boat belonging to a Pootung man named Loo Ts Ming 陸子明 near Lungwha on 17th inst. The boatmen raised an alarm to which the local police and soldiers responded. Van was arrested and taken to the Arsenal. When he was searched a letter was found in his possession showing that he had been planning with an Inspector of the City Police to rob a house in Jessfield.

Four hundred and sixty soldiers left the Arsenal for Fokien on 17th inst by the cruiser "Foh Eon".

It is reported that twelve soldiers have deserted from Woosung.

A revolver was stolen from the room of a police sergeant in the 4th district in Chapei on 18th inst.

Your Obedient Servant,

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
